Friday, May 20th 6:30pm-9:30pm
– The Crumpletons

The Crumpletons are a well known Lawrence, Kansas band that plays music from the 1960s. The band specializes in lots of vocal harmonies and 'jingle-jangle' guitars. They render the music of the 60's faithfully—created by musicians who were there to experience it, and play it like it was – this is the real thing. All of the band members are seasoned vocalists and they are veterans of the Lawrence music scene. The Crumpletons include Janette Michaels on flute, Pete Wyman on bass, John Lomas at the guitar & 12-string guitar, Felix Smalley plays the drums, and Lynn Piller plays guitar. The mix of music always includes: The Beatles, Rolling Stones, Kinks, Animals, Zombies, Yardbirds, Dave Clark Five, Supremes, Byrds, Beau Brummels, Doors, Jefferson Airplane, Beach Boys, and other related artists.

Janette Michaels- flute & vocals; Lynn Piller – guitar - steel guitar & vocals; Pete Wyman – bass & vocals; John Lomas – guitar & vocals; Buddy Pettit – drums & vocals

Friday, May 27th 6:30pm-9:30pm
– David Basse & City Light Orchestra

Vocalist and drummer, David Basse, returns to the Holy-Field stage Friday, May 27 with the current incarnation of City Light Orchestra. The sextet will include trombonist Jason Goudeau, trumpeter Nate Nall, saxophonist Todd Wilkinson, with James Ward on the bass and Joe Cartwright at the piano. A professional musician since the age of 14, Basse has received accolades and positive reviews from many prominent sources including Gary Giddins in the Village Voice, who wrote that Basse's City Light Orchestra was, "The best band to come out of Kansas City since Jay McShann's". An ardent preserver and promoter of Kansas City's legendary and illustrious musical history, Basse developed an affinity for the jump blues early on, an up-tempo flavor of music personified by small groups featuring horns.

David Basse – drums and vocals; Joe Cartwright – piano; James Ward – bass; Nate Nall – trumpet; Jason Goudeau – trombone; Todd Wilkinson-saxophones and flutes

Friday, June 3rd 6:30pm-9:30pm
– Way Too Famous

Way Too Famous has quickly become one of Kansas City's most sought-after progressive and classic rock bands. Founded in 2015 as an Eagles tribute band by drummer Derek Gjovig, the original core of musicians included guitarist Trent Dehliert, keyboardist David Page, and bassist Tim Doherty. The group later decided that they wanted to expand the repertoire beyond covering the music of just one band. They first added violinist & vocalist Brad Athey and then lead guitarist, TJ Klein, who joined the band in 2019. TJ's stellar guitar skills have made him a favorite with the fans. Way Too Famous features the combination of incredible lead vocals & rich vocal harmonies paired with technical prowess and shredding instrumental soloists. Way Too Famous has the unique ability to cover some of the most diverse and difficult music in modern rock, Kansas, Steely Dan, Peter Gabriel, and Led Zeppelin. As well as The Police, Foo Fighters, Genesis, Toto, and U2. WTF's wide variety adds to the fantastic show.

Trent Dehliert – guitar & vocals; David Page – keyboards & vocals; TJ Klein – guitar
Tim Doherty – bass & vocals; Brad Athey – lead vocals &; Derek Gjovig – drum set & sound guru

Friday, June 10th 6:30pm-9:30pm – The MGDs

The MGDs present a passionate blend of funk and blues powered by the soulful stylings of a music group driven to serve up an electrifying experience. This year's 8 piece lineup includes a mix of keys and brass with a rhythm section that adds an unique flavor to 21st century Kansas City music. Their influences include a variety of classic and modern sounds from New Orleans and beyond.

A prolific recording band, the MGDs will again have fresh new material just right for a Friday in June at Holyfield. Baritone saxophonist Cole Gurley is the newest member of the MGD family, his addition adds a new dimension to the sound of an already stunning seven-piece ensemble.

Matt Davis – drums/percussion & vocals; Damon Parker – keys & vocals; Scott "Snoff" Middleton – guitar; Greg Bush – bass; Emmitt Starkey – trombone; Kurt Wheeler – saxophone; Teddy Krulwich – trumpet; Cole Gurley – baritone saxophone

Friday, June 17th 6:30pm-9:30pm
– Howard Mahon & Friends

Lawrence based guitarist and singer-songwriter Howard Mahan is originally from Fredonia, Kansas. He began by playing the guitar in a family band when he was just 9 years-old. Recently finishing college, Howard plays shows and records across the country, primarily with his own, Howard Mahan & Friends.

He is a captivating performer, an accomplished guitarist and his lyrics tell deeply personal stories of love and truth. He is a 'Guitarlinger' in the footsteps of Eric Clapton and Stevie Ray Vaughan. Howard is bringing 'his truth' to the music he loves. Howard Mahan's first full-length original release Lost and Found came out in 2021 and it will be on sale this summer at Holy-Field. The recording features several of the top area players and has a distinct personal sound and a laid back feel. Howard has new some new music he can't wait to share with you at Holy-field on June 17.

Howard Mahan – guitar & vocals; Paul Greenlease – bass; Adam Watson – drums

Friday, June 24th 6:30pm-9:30pm
– Billie Ebeling & The Late For Dinner Band

Billy is tan, rested, and ready for 2022. He created a new recording of all original songs, covering a plethora of genres, performed on a multitude of instruments. ... "PMA Winner—Best Blues Band in Kansas City" Third-generation musicians from a musical family, Billy & his brother Terry Ebeling have traveled the globe. First as members of the Ebeling Brothers Band, and then honing their chops busking in an area known as Queen Street in Auckland, New Zealand. Billy stayed on, and spent twelve years there and in Australia, with his own band, and with the Ebeling Brothers. Mix of Blues, Zydeco, Americana and Surf with over 100 original tunes.

Steve Wright – saxophone; Jim Cavanaugh – drums; John Sage – bass; Billy Ebeling – Everything else (new instrument learned each winter)

Friday, July 1st 6:30pm-9:30pm
– Allied Saints

A Kansas City-based, vocally driven Rock band with roots in Blues, Soul, and Southern Rock. Consisting of strong lead vocals from Missi, Mo and Ken, and the incredible talents of Martin on Guitar and Rick on Keyboards. Allied Saints have become a Fourth of July tradition at Holy-Field. This year, they'll be introducing their new drummer Dave Cordill, and bassist Tyler Kelly, and they both sing! Giving The Saints a fresh new perspective on an already terrific ensemble.

Missi Lehr – vocals; Martin Zander – guitar & vocals; Dave Cordill – drums & vocals; Tyler Kelly – bass & vocals; Gharett Schaberg – saxophone & keyboards
Cooter Brand BBQ Food Truck

Friday, July 8th 6:30pm-9:30pm – James Ward Band

The JWB, also known as The James Ward Band consists of a most unique combination of musicians. The JWB perform a wide variety of music that ranges from gospel to the smoothest jazz. This experienced band has shared the stage with saxophonist Bobby Watson and vocalist Oleta Adams. Did I say that they were a family band? At Holy-Field in 2021, they put on a sensational show and we are excited to have them back once again. The JWB headlines the Cool Breeze Art and Smooth Jazz Festival in Florida this spring and then brings that cool breeze to right back to Kansas, and Holy-Field Vineyard this July.

Angela Ward – piano; James Ward – bass; Jaylin Ward – drums; Terry Swope – guitar & vocals

Friday, July 15th 6:30pm-9:30pm – Luck 20

Luck 20 started as a collaboration between Jordan Faught and Parker Woolworth their first day of college. During their freshman year at Kansas City Kansas Community College they connected with many more musicians. Through these efforts they have created Luck 20, a band consisting of 2 trombones, a saxophone, piano, bass, and drums. Parker Woolworth writes the majority of the music performed by Luck 20. He conducts the group and with Jordan Faught's help, Parker has created an album of original music that will be on sale this summer at Holy-Field. In live performance they improvise over the horn parts created by Asa Martin. This is contemporary jazz. It is mixed with popular genres, bringing new energy and creativity to the tradition of Kansas City Jazz. They will be joined by vocalist David Basse at Luck 20s July 15th Holy-Field performance.

Asa Martin – trombone; Henry Fears – trombone; Atzin Garcia – saxophone; Parker Woolworth – piano; Jordan Faught – bass; Ben Garber – drums

Friday, July 22nd 6:30pm-9:30pm
– The Nace Brothers

A Parrot Head Favorite! The Nace Brothers feature expressive vocals and stunning guitar complimented by an all explosive rhythm section. Together they've created a body of work that appeals to a broad audience. SOUND TRAVELS is a live CD/DVD set that captures The Nace Brothers in their element. Featuring blues hammering oldies like the classic 'Rock Bottom' to newest releases like 'Everywhere You Go' and 'Let's Get Together'. Then switching to acoustic bass and accordion, they get down to earth with classics like, 'Jambalaya' and 'Way Out Yonder' and ending with the soulful 'Life Goes On'. All of this caught on film by documentary film maker Dr. Ben Meade. Roots Rock Americana music doesn't get any better than this. Led by fourth generation performers, David and Jimmy Nace, their musicianship and engaging stage presence has earned them appreciative audiences and has helped them persevere throughout an extensive musical career.

David Nace – drums & lead vocals; Jimmy Nace – guitar & vocals; Chase McRoy – bass & vocals; TJ Erhardt – Keyboards & vocals

Friday, July 29th 6:30pm-9:30pm
– Tom DeMasters Moments Notice

This seven piece, high energy group covers everything from vintage to rock, contemporary blues to classics. The diversity in the music keeps the audience engaged, and asking for more. With outstanding individual musical histories, together they create musical magic.

Vocalist Millie Edwards is known for her big voice and wide vocal range. She is a regular on the Kansas City jazz and blues circuit, performing in small groups and recording with the Wild Women of Kansas City, and performing at the Kauffman Center with the Kansas City Jazz Orchestra. Music critics have praised her as revealing "a confident, full-range voice that has no doubt been heard in church on many a Sunday." She finds new reflections in old, familiar words.

Friday, August, 5th 6:30pm-9:30pm – Amarugia Ridge Runners

A mix of folk, blues, old country, and bluegrass, these young and adventurous musicians bring a sound from their roots. The Amarugia Highlands have historically been home to mysteries, moonshiners, and music. Their connection to this land and love of the rich history has drawn them together. They all come together to create amazing music and long-lasting memories.

Alan Voss – Drums; Jesse Bauerle – Bass/ Vocals; John Allin – Banjo/Harmonica/ Vocals; Michael Turnbo – Violin; Clay Dahman – Guitar/ Vocals

Friday, August 12th 6:30pm-9:30pm – KC Aces

The KC Aces, a who's who of the Kansas City music scene, consists of musicians that have been the special part of many of KC's very favorite bands. Whether it's blues or bluegrass, celtic or country 1 or 2 of every band's members, are standouts – musicians that the rest of the band look up to. The KC Aces are recognized by the Kansas Music Hall of Fame, and are all respected as standouts. No doubt, Jay's MowBry's soulful voice and Terry Swope's lightnin' crisp guitar define the Aces sound; but think about the solid foundation coming from Pat's honky tonk piano, Oscar's zydeco sax, Tommy's rockhouse drums, and Andy's deeply-rooted groove.

Jay MowBry – lead vocals; Terry Swope – guitar and vocals; Oscar Polk – saxophone
Pat Pearce – piano; Andy DeWitt – bass; Tommy Sutherland – drums

New Wine Dog and Wine Deck
We have two new additions!

Venture outside our Tasting Room and you will find a new reason to sip and savor while taking in our vineyard views. We have added a new addition to our vineyard deck that increases the space for you to enjoy your favorite bottle of Holy-Field Wine! Many thanks to our own Patrick Meyer (and supervisor Scout the Wine Dog) for building a new place to relax and make great memories at Holy-Field. While you are enjoying vineyard views and wine, you will no doubt meet Scout the Wine Dog Puppy! Scout is a Black Labrador Retriever who would love to pull up a chair with you at our new wine deck. P.S. Watch your snacks... he is a (very cute and sweet) labrador.
