Mav 24 – 6:30pm – 9:30pm HOWARD MAHAN BAND

For the past 5 years, Howard Mahan has been our resident guitar slinger. He would have probably left the area years ago to travel with the rich and famous, but Howard has a swingin' day gig, himself. Besides that, Howard is out roaming the streets and slinging that guitar practically every night. He's young. He's very talented. And he loves to play at Holy-Field.

On Howard's latest release of original music, he both sings and plays, and you can purchase his new music at his website, and at his May 24th winery show. We love Howard at Holy-Field and we think that you will too. Check him Out!

There have been scores of bands appearing here over the past 2 decades. This is one that you won't want to miss.

Clifton Chenier. Since James Plays the piano note accordion, the very same variety Chenier did, it's only natural that some first generation-type riffs are reminiscent of the King of Zydeco. But Ernest James Zydeco Cultivates their own personality on this all-original affair: bursting island beats, squelchy reggae keys, Sacred Steel-ish notes and Gospel harmonies... Think Springsteen jammin' with Skynyrd in some honky-tonk after midnight. Damien Gunn, the band's namesake, leads the charge with a gravelly voice

This is an edgy outlaw country meets New Jersey rock n' roll band that is sure to please those on the lawn that have had a full week of work and are ready to begin the weekend right. 3 Trails West is passionate about vintage Western Music.

"We've dug deep to uncover recordings that got left in the dust." says the band, "Our journey has taken us down some old, rutted swales, 'Trails Less Traveled,' you might say. We hope our music sounds familiar in the way that only a good Cowboy song can: like putting on a favorite shirt, a little faded and fraved at the collar, but more comfortable for the wear."

Silent Trails is their latest album: "This new CD by 3 Trails West is a truly enjoyable album mixing some top class sounds of Western, Western Swing and Country Music. It will be on my Top 10 charts very shortly." Mike Gross

July 19 – 6:30pm – 9:30pm – NACE BROTHERS

Fourth generation performers, their musical heritage began in the latter part of the 19th century with their great-great grandfather the classically trained violinist, Valandingham Nace. The legacy continued in the 1920's and 30's with their grandfather Percy, a multi- instrumentalist and square dance caller. By the late 40's their father was playing box suppers and square dances.

ิตตต BROTHERS

Johnny Nace progressed from playing rural dances to leading the house bands on the regional radio and television programs, "Hillbilly Jamboree" and "Circle Six Ranch." He recorded rockabilly in the late 50's before finding his musical home during the golden age of honky-tonk. An astute songwriter he led a top notch band to regional success with songs like "Sing me the blues" and "Blue Notes". The Nace Brothers 1997 release. "Roots of Steel" is a tribute to their father and the lessons he taught them. This is the Nace Brothers 42nd year as a touring group.

of a music group driven to serve up an electrifying experience to the masses. In what started as a three piece between longtime friends in 2008, the MGDs have evolved into what is now a potent powerhouse group in the high-energy music category. Influences include a variety of classic and modern sounds from New Orleans and beyond.
