May 16 – 6:30pm – 9:30pm – GROOVE PILOTS

Get ready for take off! KC's premier Classic Rock group will have you grooving throughout the vineyard. Playing your favorite classic tunes to current hits. Lonnie Ray's former drummer, Tim Kelly is the gregarious front man of the Groove Pilots. There is a certain segment in time that this little band covers very well. The reason? Everybody sings, and everybody sings along. The Groove Pilots have an infectious sound and they are very happy to share it with their audience. Tim Newton – lead vocals; David Bostwick – keys, guitar, harp & vocals; Dannie Button – keys, guitar, harp & lead vocals ; Dave "The Candyman" Swiercinsky – guitar & vocals; Tim Kelly – drums & vocals <https://groovepilots.com/>

May 23 – 6:30pm – 9:30pm – DAMIEN GUNN

Back by popular demand! Think Springsteen jammin' with Skynyrd in some honky-tonk after midnight. Damien Gunn, the band's namesake, leads the charge with a gravelly voice that's weathered like his worn leather boots. His songwriting paints vivid portraits of small town heroes and blue -collar dreams, tales of heartache and hard work set against the backdrop of dusty highways and starlit skies. Drummer, Lisa McKenzie is the winner of the 2023 JAM Magazine drummer of the year. A readers poll of Kansas City favorites. This is an edgy outlaw country meets New Jersey rock n' roll band that is sure to please those on the lawn that have had a full week of work and are ready to begin the weekend right. June 6 - 6:30pm – 9:30pm – Stranded in the City

André and Antonio arose from a musical family that can be traced across 4 generations. They met Timmy, a natural rock guitarist, and bassist, Matt, who would later become the core of Stranded in the City. Then they toped it all off with Densil, who adds his West African flavor to the mix. Together they formed a solid sound. The Reyes brothers created one of Kansas City's powerhouse bands. Expect a melting pot of genres; R&B, Funk, Country, Tex-Mex, Rock and Pop are all weaved into their music. The right energy. The thickness of the groove and the Reyes brother's rich vocal harmonies and smoking improvisational skills. Andre' Reyes Jr –keyboards & vocals Antonio Reyes – drums & vocals Timmy Keith – guitar & vocals Matt Elton – bass & vocals DJ Malabre – percussion & vocals <https://www.facebook.com/StrandedintheCityBand/>

June 13 – 6:30pm – 9:30pm – WAY TOO FAMOUS

This is a band that is now a Holy-Field favorite. They cover some very complex pop tunes from Peter Gabriel, Steely Dan, Elton John and the like. You'd swear at times that there is an entire orchestra playing (behind them) in the grapevines. Holy-Field's line-up is ever changing and always high-quality. There have been scores of bands appearing here over the past 2 decades. This is one that you won't want to miss. July 25 – 6:30pm – 9:30pm – NACE BROTHERS

Fourth generation performers, their musical heritage began in the latter part of the 19th century with their great-great grandfather the clas-sically trained violinist, Valandingham Nace. The legacy continued in the 1920's and 30's with their grandfather Percy, a multi- instrumentalist and square dance caller. By the late 40's their father was playing box suppers and square dances. Johnny Nace progressed from playing rural dances to leading the house bands on the regional radio and television programs, “Hillbilly Jamboree” and “Circle Six Ranch.” He recorded rockabilly in the late 50's before finding his musical home during the golden age of honky-tonk. An astute songwriter he led a top notch band to regional success with songs like “Sing me the blues” and “Blue Notes”. The Nace Brothers 1997 release, “Roots of Steel” is a tribute to their father and the lessons he taught them. This is the Nace Brothers 43rd year as a touring group.
