Tom DeMasters & Millie Edwards

Guitarist Tom DeMasters and Moment's Notice is an excellent seven piece, high energy group covering vintage classics, rock, and contemporary blues. Their diversity as a group, keeps the audience engaged, and always asking for more. Vocalist Millie Edwards is known for her big voice and wide vocal range. She is a regular on the Kansas City scene, with a regular Sunday brunch performance, singing in church, small groups, and a charter member of the Wild Women of Kansas City. She recently performed at the Kauffman Center with the Kansas City Jazz Orchestra. Music critics have praised her as revealing "a confident, full-range voice that has no doubt been heard in church on many a Sunday." She finds new reflections in old, familiar words. She is often referred to as "the little woman with a big voice!" Join them as they spread the love, at Holy-Field .

AnnaLee and the Lucky So and Sos

The "So and So's" are a Kansas City-based band that celebrates the Kansas City sound of the decades of the 1930s, 40s, and 50s: the heyday of KC-style jazz, swing, and jump blues. The members of the band come from diverse musical backgrounds, with each musician bringing talents and experiences from years of performing in every venue imaginable - from opera houses to roadhouses.

Since the early 2000s, AnnaLee and the Lucky So and Sos have been thrilling audiences, and dancers, with their high-spirited interpretations of tunes by Count

Basie, Ella Fitzgerald, Julia Lee, Louie Jordan, and so many more, and the band has even contributed a few of their own original tunes, always in the distinctive Kansas City style.

KC Aces

The KC Aces are recognized by the Kansas Music Hall of Fame. Each member is respected as a standout. Jay MowBray's soulful voice and Terry Swope's lightnin' crisp guitar define the Aces sound; but think about the solid foundation coming from Pat's honky-tonk piano, Oscar's zydeco sax, Tommy's rock house drums, and Andy's deeply rooted groove. The vocals have come into the forefront with the addition of Andy on the bass and background vocals. You will know all the songs and we can hear you singing along! A who's who of the Kansas City music scene, this group consists of musicians that have been the special part of many of KC's very favorite bands. "Kansas City's infamous KC Aces forged in the fires of a thousand stages."

- Jay MowBray — lead vocals
- Terry Swope — guitar, vocals
- Pat Pierce - keyboards
- Oscar Polk — saxophone
- Andy DeWitt — bass - vocals

Friends, Wow, can't believe we are midway through the year and today (June 28th) we are thrilled to see a lush vineyard full of fruit! 2023 is already a year of plentiful sunshine... and all that leads us to grape harvest! In the meanwhile we sure would like some rain. There are acres of grapes that will be ready to pick. I see the grapes on the vine and I can just hear the “clomp, clomp” sound they will make when they are picked into the buckets. What a beautiful sound that will be when we all gather for the 2023 Vintage. We have already received letters (Thank you Richard Price), and requests for the harvest schedule! We can't do it without you, so please spend a morning with us and enjoy the vineyard fun!

2023 marks our 30th harvest and 29 years of our annual “Picking Sunday's!” We are thrilled to celebrate another vintage with you! The vineyard is the greenest green and the grapes are gonna be sweet! And now... we are eager to get our pruners and buckets ready for another harvest. It is our favorite time of the year! The time when we are joined by the finest grape and wine enthusiasts around! YES... it is almost time to pick those grapes! Well, not now, but soon enough, we will wake up to ripe grapes ready to make wine! We are always thrilled to have you join us for our picking days! We have so many guests ask about grape picking and we are thrilled to add new folks to our picking crews. There is something very special about spending a harvest morning in the vineyard. And I will guarantee that you will have a good time and make lots of memories. I speak from many years of picking experience.

Sooooo many good times. Soooooo many memories.

“Picking Sundays” is our chance to share all that glorious summer sunshine with you! Our favorite time of year... gathering in the vineyard for the grape harvest. Celebrate with Holy-Field as we bring in the 2023 Harvest and and celebrate 29 years of business.

Harvest season is an opportunity to discover the agriculture behind the wine. Come pick grapes with us, taste the fruit right off the vine, then taste the juice as we press in the cellar. “Picking Sundays” are family-friendly. We love seeing entire families and generations of families enjoy the vineyard. Every year we get to share the experience with so many great volunteers and every year the harvest is just as sweet because of your participation. We couldn't do it without your help. Our volunteer harvest crews are special and your help translates directly to making the wine just as special. Plan now for grape
