May 21 - 6:30pm – 9:30pm – City Light Orchestra

David Basse is excited to again present the Summertime Music Series that he began at Holy-Field Vineyard 21 years ago. We are thrilled the series continues without a break and honored that many of the hundreds of musicians that have performed here, are back for our 2021 season. David joined forces with pianist, Tim Whitmer in August of 1982, to form City Light Orchestra. The band has been celebrated as a, "True Slice of Kansas City". The original band, with Ahmad Alaadeen and LaVerne "Big L" Barker performed 5-7 nights a week together for several years. Vocalist and drummer, David Basse began his career in music in Nebraska, and in 2017 he was inducted into The Nebraska Music Hall of Fame. This year's CLO consists of David's longtime trio with Joseph Straws Jr, and pianist Greg Richter, plus horn players long associated with the band, Jason Goudeau on the trombone, Nate Nail on the trumpet and saxophonist, Todd Wilkinson.

May 28 - 6:30pm – 9:30pm – Way Too Famous

Way Too Famous was formed in 2015 by drummer Derek Gjovig. The began as an Eagles tribute band. Gjovig and the original core of musicians Trent Oehlert, David Page and Tim Doherty decided that they wanted to expand the repertoire, which led to expanding the band. Brad Athey and guitarist Doug Perkins now round out the troupe, along with the newest member, TJ Klein, carrying on the tradition of the band's stellar lead guitarists. Way Too Famous features a combination of incredible lead vocals, rich vocal harmonies, technical prowess and shredding solos. Way Too Famous has the unique ability to cover some of the most diverse and most difficult music in rock; The Allman Brothers, The Beatles, Kansas, Steely Dan, Peter Gabriel, Led Zeppelin, The Police, to Foo Fighters, Genesis, Toto, U2 and many more. WTF's wide variety only adds to their ability to put on a fantastic show. We welcome Way Too Famous back to Holy-Field for another rockin' show.

Soulful stylings served up as an electrifying experience that adds a unique new flavor to the iconic Kansas City sound. It's the MGDs, back at Holy-Field for their sixth season. Influences include a variety sounds from New Orleans, Memphis and other river towns, such as . . . Kansas City.

“ . . . One of Kansas City's most accomplished party bands, strongly influenced by New Orleans groups such as the Radiators, the Iguanas and the Neville Brothers.” – Bill Brownlee KCUR

What began in 2008 as a co-op group of three long-time friends has evolved into a recording & traveling act. The MGDs released their 4th album, Midtown, last year, featuring 10 new songs. 90.9 the Bridge, named MGDs a part of their Best of 2020 list, and a song from the album, Midtown was included in the station's Top 90 songs of the year. June 11 - 6:30pm – 9:30pm – Billy Ebeling and the Late for Dinner Band

Billy is tan, rested, and ready for 2021. He created a new recording of all original songs, covering a plethora of genres, performed on a multitude of instruments. The band only missed a few open jam sessions at Knuckleheads Saloon in 2020. This Saturday at 1pm affair has hosted by Billy for the past 17 years, and he and his Late For Dinner Band have been with us, here at Holy-Field as long as we've had this music series. As a special treat this year, the trio has become a quartet, and we're happy to include them in the Holy-Field Summertime Series. "PMA Winner—Best Blues Band in Kansas City"

Third-generation musicians from a musical family, Billy & his brother Terry Ebeling have traveled the globe. First as members of the Ebeling Brothers Band, and then honing their chops busking in an area known as Queen Street in Auckland, New Zealand. Billy stayed on, and spent twelve years there and in Australia, with his own band, and with the Ebeling Brothers.

June 18 – 6:30pm – 9:30pm – The Crumpletons

John Lomas is a sensational lead guitarist and the vocals by this band are sublime. Even if you don't dance, you will get caught up in the sounds, and who knows. . . this could be the night! The Crumpletons will be doing what they do best – getting you movin', groovin' and perhaps singin' along. Dance the night away to this popular local band, from a town chalk full of great local bands – all the way back to Arie Simmonds wonderful 1929 dance band, oh but that's another story.

"For 5 years in a row the parking lot has been full for the entire evening and folks walked as much as a half a mile to hear The Fabulous Crumpletons."

July 2 6:30pm – 9:30pm – Allied Saints

Don't take my word for it, listen to what vocalist Missi Lehr says about her wonderful band. . . "Martin Zander's guitar licks are, in my opinion, comparable to any of the great guitar players of all time. The scary thing is, he keeps getting better." This is a live music love affair. Missy is married to Martin!

"When I was about three years old I sang at our church. It was then that I realized that I wanted to sing. I've never stopped feeling that way about being in front of people." – Missi Lehr

Experienced in blues, rock, and Latin percussion drummer, Daniel Montero is the newest member of The Saints, giving a welcome new perspective to this already terrific ensemble. They have become a Fourth of July tradition here at Holy-Field Winery. So, again . . . we'll have some fireworks off the stage, and we assure you there will be fireworks on the stage. Check out the Allied Saints on Facebook, to get a great sense of what this band is all about. This band loves to be on stage and lives to play music live.

July 9 – 6:30pm – 9:30pm – James Ward Band

"The JWb" was formed in the 18th and Vine District of Kansas City. James, a native of Kansas City, attended Florida A&M University, where he studied Tuba, and played acoustic and electric bass. James' experience, skill, and reputation has led him to perform throughout the United States and on a tour of South Africa with vocalist Oleta Adams. This is a contemporary jazz band, whose show consists of Latin, R&B, fusion, funk, jazz, and gospel music. Their debut album In Perspective, hit the Smooth Jazz Indie Charts at #42, made the top 20. The recording stayed there for a number of weeks. That album, followed by Groove Axis released in 2010. This is a family band, with James' wife Angela at the keyboards. She is a composer and record producer, who brings a blend of fusion jazz, and classical music to everything she plays. Angela began playing piano at three-years-old. The musical couple's son Jaylen, has become the drummer of the band. Not to be outdone by his mom, he began playing drums at two! Jaylen will attend KCKCC in the fall. Guitarist, Terry Swope who has been featured at Holy-Field with KC Aces for the past several years, will be on-hand to sing and play guitar. We are excited to bring The JWb to the Vineyard for a groovin' night of music.

He returns to Holy-Field, this summer, with yet another stellar group. For this special performance at the winery, Dylan bring his working trio from Eureka Springs and adds, once again lead guitarist Ryan Overfelt of KC. Dylan, a native of Eureka Springs, AR, has been a regular at the Walnut Valley Music Festival - Winfield, KS since he was a child. It is the most prestigious music festival of its kind in the country and Dylan is a one of a kind musician.

" . . . vocals and raw and approachable songwriting paired perfectly with Dylan's virtuosity, as a multi-instrumentalist (who) provides a powerful, memorable and moving musical performance." – Ernie Hill, reviewer

This veteran group's musicianship and engaging stage presence has earned them appreciative audiences at concert halls, nightclubs and festivals throughout the Midwest and Southeastern United States. They perform regularly at Knuckleheads Saloon in Kansas City and Margaritaville Café in Key West, Florida. And, many stops in-between. "They've earned the respect of promoters, club owners, producers and peers for their dedication to their craft, easy going confidence and their refreshing lack of pretense." The brothers have spent many a week on the road, for the past 38 years. They have recorded and released 9 albums to date and made a documentary film.

July 30 – 6:30pm – 9:30pm – Howard Mahan

If you like the sounds of the Allman Brothers, Warren Haynes and Derek Trucks you'll love Howard Mahan. He came up from southern Kansas recently, and has been getting lots of notice from musicians. We are excited to see what happens when we add him to our musical menu here at Holy-Field.

"There are guitar players and there are guitar slingers, Howard Mahan is a guitar slinger" – Martin Zander

Howard began playing the guitar at 9, tackling the sounds of Texas, New Orleans and Chicago. In college he studied jazz and classical, while gigging at night. Now in his 20s, Howard plays with a diversity of style that can not be ignored.

August 6 – 6:30pm – 9:30pm – Hot Club KC

Violinist, Adam Galblum is Kansas City's jazz violinist. At a young age, Adam had the insight to study with a living treasure. Now, after the passing of, Claude 'Fiddler' Williams, Adam carries on 'Fiddler's rich Kansas City music tradition in a variety of settings. The most prominent being the ensemble named Hot Club KC. Hot Club music began in France in the 1930s, and the sound is now popular around the world. After attending Berklee College of Music and living for a time in Denver, Adam returned to his hometown formed the band. They played a long residency at The Phoenix in downtown KC and at concerts and festivals around the area. Adam has performed on several radio broadcasts, including 12th Street Jump, Public Radio's Jazz Blues and Comedy Jam and he recorded Down To The Wire, The Stringband Tribute to the Music of John Mayer.

August 13 6:30pm – 9:30pm

– Jay MowBray and KC Aces

Jay has been singing since he was in grade school. He performed with a gospel group that toured the Midwest. He later put music aside to concentrate on a career, and to raise a family. Now back in the music business with all of his heart, Jay and the band are better every time I hear them. If fact, they sound as if they all played together since grade school. Especially with the addition of their newest member, drummer Tommy Sutherland.

"Masterful Practitioners of the Musical Arts."

Entertaining crowds since they were teenagers, four of five members of the KC Aces are recognized by the Kansas Music Hall of Fame. Jay's MowBray's soulful voice and Terry Swope's soulful lightnin' guitar define the sound of the Aces. Terry Swope has long been known as one of the finest electric guitarists around, and Jay MowBray has that voice . . . not unlike Eric Clapton, Joe Cocker, or David Clayton-Thomas—he always brings his own signature style to a song.

Jay MowBray – lead vocals; Terry Swope – guitar and vocals; Oscar Polk – saxophone; Cliff Eveland – bass ; Tommy Sutherland – drums
